Section A – Personal information

A1. Please read this before answering the following questions.

You must disclose all names you have been known by throughout your life, including your primary name, name before marriage (maiden name), and other previous names and/or alias names.

With each additional name you provide, you must include your family name, first given name and other given names (if applicable).

Example:

When Lucianne was born, she was given the first name Lucianne, second given name Jane and surname of Jones. When she was married, she changed her surname to Smith.

Lucianne commonly uses the name Lucy when introducing herself in the community.

As such, Lucianne has four known names—her current name, pre-marriage name, the alias name she used before she got married and the alias name she uses now. Lucianne needs to provide all four names when completing this form, as follows:

Current name:	Smith, Lucianne Jane
Pre-marriage name:	Jones, Lucianne Jane
Alias name:	Smith, Lucy Jane
Alias name:	Jones, Lucy Jane

Section B – Purpose of the Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check

The Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check is being conducted for the purpose of granting a Special Authority For An Unregistered Person To Teach as an Exchange Teacher. This involves unsupervised contact with children and young people.

Section C – Informed consent

What is informed consent?

Your informed consent is needed before an accredited body can request a Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check on you. Your informed consent means you:

- have read and understood the information provided in this form about how your personal information and any police information relevant to you will be handled and disclosed
- provide your permission for the accredited body to request a Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check on your behalf.

How do I provide my informed consent?

An important aspect of providing informed consent is that you understand what you are consenting to. It is important that you read the consent statements in question C2 and, where required, get clarification from the TRB, to ensure complete understanding. You must then sign and date this form at C2, to give your informed consent.

C1. Your personal and police information will be disclosed to the Teachers Registration Board of South Australia

C2. Please read this before answering the following question.

You must provide your name, read each statement carefully and then print your name, sign and date to provide your informed consent.
